Except as expressly stated in the Order, these terms apply to any agreement for the sale of Goods and/or provision of Services by the Seller to the Buyer.

2.2

The terms and conditions of the Order embody the entire understanding of the parties and constitutes the entire agreement by the parties. The Order supersedes any prior written or other agreement between the parties for the sale of Goods and/or provision of Services by the Seller to the Buyer.

2.3

No terms and conditions of sale of the Seller form part of the terms and conditions on which any Goods and/or Services are purchased. No terms stated by the Seller when accepting or acknowledging an Order are binding upon the Buyer unless accepted with consent in writing by a Director, Manager or Senior Officer of The Buyer.

2.4

Both parties acknowledge that the Seller is not the Buyer's agent, employee, partner or joint venturer.

2.5

If an example is given of anything (including a right, obligation or concept), such as by saying it includes something else, the example does not limit the scope of that thing.

3.

OFFICIAL PURCHASE ORDERS

The Buyer will not be bound by any Order unless it is issued by the Buyer on its official Order form. The Seller accepts the Buyer's Order, including these terms, by supplying the Goods or Services. 5.

5.1

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS AND SPECIFICATION

The Seller may only submit an invoice to the Buyer upon the latter to occur, of the following:

- b) prior to the dispatch of the Goods, if progress payment or payment in advance is agreed to by the Buyer in writing as stated on the Order; or
- c) the completion of the Services; or
- d) where progress payments are to be made for the provision of Services, on the last Business Day of each calendar month for Services performed by the Seller in that month.

6.6

If the Goods and/or Services provided by the Seller comply with the Order and an invoice has been prepared and submitted in accordance with the Order, the Buyer must pay each invoice within 60 days after the end of the month in which the invoice is received by the Buyer, except where the Buyer disputes the invoice in which case Buyer will pay the undisputed part of the relevant invoice (if any) and dispute the balance in accordance with clause 27. If the resolution of the dispute determines that the Buyer is to pay an amount to the Seller, the Buyer will pay that amount to the Seller within 30 days of the date of the determination.

6.7

Unless otherwise specified, the price includes one set of standard instructions. The Seller must on request by the Buyer supply further copies of instructions and certified outline drawings for the Goods and/or Services on payment of the Seller's reasonable copying charges.

6.8

15.3

If upon inspection the Goods and/or the Services do not comply in every way with the Order and the terms applying to the Order, the Buyer may at its option either:

- a) reject the Goods; or
- b) require the Seller at no cost to the Buyer to make good within 5 Business Days any loss, damage or defect in the Goods and/or the Services to the satisfaction of the Buyer.

15.4

No inspection by the Buyer during the manufacture of the Goods or prior to their dispatch will affect the Seller's warranties.

15.5

Even after it has paid for any Goods and/or Services, the Buyer may claim against the Seller for unsatisfactory, defective or damaged Goods and/or Services.

15.6

The Buyer is not taken to have accepted any Goods and/or Services merely because the Buyer has inspected or examined them or taken possession of them.

If there is a shortfall in the quantity of Goods delivered, the Buyer may either:

- a) require the Seller to credit the Buyer for the shortfall; or
- b) within 5 Business Days of delivery require the Seller to deliver the outstanding Goods, which the Seller must promptly do at its own cost.

- the supply of defective Goods or Services; and
- personal injury or death or loss of or damage to any property (including loss of or damage to the Buyer's property) arising out of or as a consequence of the Seller's supply of Goods or performance of the Services under the Order.

This clause 18 shall survive the termination or completion of the Order.

19. CANCELLATION OF ORDERS

If the Seller breaches any provision of the Order, or if an Insolvency Event occurs in relation to the Seller, the Buyer may at its option and without prejudice to any of its other rights, cancel the Order to the extent that the Order relates to Goods which have not yet been delivered to the Buyer, any Goods on hire to the Buyer and/or Services which have not been provided. The Seller has no claim for the price of those Goods, remaining period of hire on hired Goods and/or Services or for any compensation for that cancellation.

Even if clause 19.1 does not apply, the Buyer may at any time cancel any Order for Goods and/or Services, but:

- the Buyer must pay for any part of the Goods delivered, hire period that has elapsed for Goods hired and/or Services provided prior to the cancellation and accepted by the Buyer;
- if the Seller has prior to the cancellation shipped any Goods which have not been delivered to the Buyer at the time of cancellation, the Buyer may either accept delivery of those Goods, or return them to the Seller at the Buyer's expense (and the Seller has no claim for the price of those Goods or for any compensation for that cancellation); and
- if the Goods are unshipped at the time of cancellation, the Seller has no claim for the price of those Goods or for any compensation for that cancellation, except to the extent that the Goods are manufactured or fabricated to the Buyer's specification or to a specification prepared by the Seller for the Buyer, and for those Goods:
 - on receiving the notice of cancellation, the Seller must cease manufacture in accordance with and to the extent specified in the notice and immediately do everything possible to mitigate any costs incurred;

If the Seller does not deliver the Goods and/or perform the Services by the specified date, or supplies any Goods and/or Services, which in the opinion of the Buyer do not comply with every requirement of the terms applying to the Order, the Buyer may purchase or hire replacement goods from a third party or engage another contractor to perform the Services and the difference (if any) between the cost of the replacement goods or services and the price of the Goods or Services (as applicable) will be a debt due and owing from the Seller to the Buyer.

20. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Seller must maintain the confidentiality of every enquiry, quotation and tender concerning the supply of Goods and/or Services by the Seller to the Buyer, and of any Order.

The Seller must obtain the Buyer's prior written consent before disclosing to any third party anything which relates to the supply of Goods and/or Services and drawings and/or specifications related to the Buyer.

The Seller must not without the prior written consent of the Buyer disclose to any third party the terms of any Order or the fact that it supplies Goods and/or Services to, or has any relationship with, the Buyer.

This clause 20 shall survive the termination of these terms or completion of any Order.

21. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Seller warrants that the sale or use of any Goods and/or Services by the Buyer will not infringe or contribute to the infringement of any intellectual property rights (including rights to patents, designs, copyright, trademarks, trade names, circuit layouts or other protected right) conferred under statute, common law or equity in any country.

The Seller must indemnify the Buyer against any loss, claim, damage or expense arising out of or in connection with any claim by a third party that its intellectual property rights have been, or will be, infringed by the Buyer's use of the Goods and/or Services.

If Goods are to display any trade names, trademarks, specifications, artwork or other material supplied by the Buyer ("Buyer Materials"), the Seller may use such Buyer Materials solely for the purpose of packaging and labelling the Goods, or as otherwise permitted in writing by the Buyer in writing. The form, design, colour, text and manner and use of the Buyer materials will be subject to prior written approval of the Buyer. When the Buyer Materials are used;

The Seller must maintain adequate insurance including public liability, workers' compensation (including common law liability), automotive, freight liability, product damage insurance and other insurances required by law or reasonably expected or required by the Buyer. Unless otherwise agreed, insurance coverage will be for no less than $10,000,000 in respect of each claim. If specified in the Order, the Seller must also affect a professional indemnity insurance policy on terms and for amounts specified by the Buyer.

At the Buyer's request, the Seller must produce evidence that the Seller is maintaining the insurances required by clause 23.1.

The Buyer may take out and maintain any policy of insurance required by clause 23.1 if the Seller fails to do so. Any cost or expense incurred by the Buyer in taking out and maintaining any policy of insurance under this clause shall be a debt due and owing by the Seller to the Buyer.

24. LIABILITY OF BUYER

The Buyer is not liable for any injury, damage or loss sustained by the Seller or by any employee or agent on the Buyer's premises or at any place of delivery, performance or elsewhere.

The Seller must indemnify the Buyer against, and releases the Buyer from, any claim, cost or demand in connection with any such injury, damage or loss or any injury, damage or loss in connection with the Order or the transaction contemplated by the Order.

25. SUBCONTRACTING

The Seller must not assign its rights or obligations in relation to the Order without the prior written consent of the Buyer.

The Seller must not subcontract the whole or any part of the Services or the production, manufacture or supply of the whole or any part of the Goods without the prior written consent of the Buyer.

The Buyer's consent to the Seller subcontracting its rights or obligations does not relieve the Seller of any of its obligations under the Order.

The Buyer may dispose of, declare a trust over or otherwise create an interest in its rights under this document without the consent of any other party, and may disclose to any potential holder of the right or interest any information relating to this document or any party to it.

26. AMENDMENT

This document can only be amended, supplemented, replaced or novated by another document signed by the Seller and the Buyer.

27. DISPUTES

27.1

If any dispute arises in connection with the Order which cannot be settled amicably between the Buyer and the Seller, either party may give written notice of the dispute to the other party.

27.2

Within 14 days after service of a notice of dispute the Buyer and the Seller shall confer at least once to attempt to resolve the dispute and failing resolution of the dispute to explore and if possible, agree on methods of resolving the dispute by other means. At any such conference each party shall be represented by a senior manager having authority to agree to a resolution of the dispute. In the event that the dispute cannot be so resolved or if at any time either party considers that the other party is not making reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute, either party may commence litigation proceedings.

27.3

In the event of a dispute, the Buyer and the Seller must continue to comply with their obligations under the Order.

28. GST ON CLAIMS

If the Seller provides a payment for or any satisfaction of a Buyer's claim or a Buyer's right to claim under or in connection with this document (for example, for a breach of any warranty or for indemnity or for reimbursement of any expense) that gives rise to a liability for GST, the Seller must pay, and indemnify the Buyer on demand against the amount of that GST.

If the Buyer has a claim under or in connection with this document for a cost on which the Buyer must pay an amount for GST, the claim is for the cost plus the amount for GST (except any amount for GST for which the Buyer is entitled to an input tax credit).

28.3

If the Buyer has a claim under or in connection with any Order whose amount depends on actual or estimated revenue or which is for a loss of revenue, revenue must be calculated without including any amount received or receivable as reimbursement for GST (whether that amount is separate or included as part of a larger amount).

29. APPLICABLE LAW

These terms will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Buyer, New South Wales. The Seller irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of a competent court of that state.

30. WAIVER

A right of Buyer may only be waived in writing, as signed by the Buyer.

No other conduct of the Buyer (including a failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, the right) operates as a waiver of the right or otherwise prevents the exercise of the right.

A waiver of a right by the Buyer on one or more occasions does not operate as a waiver of that right if it arises again.

30.4

The exercise of a right by the Buyer does not prevent any further exercise of that right or of any other right.

31. AGREEMENT

The Order contains the entire agreement between the parties about the supply of the Goods and/or Services. Any previous understanding, agreement, representation or warranty relating to that subject matter is replaced by the Order and has no further effect.

No terms and conditions of sale of the Seller form part of the terms and conditions on which any Goods and/or Services are provided. No terms stated by the Seller when accepting or acknowledging an Order are binding upon the Buyer unless accepted with consent in writing by a Director, Manager or Senior Officer of the Buyer.

Any right that the Buyer may have under the Order is in addition to, and does not replace or limit, any other right that the Buyer may have.

Any provision of the Order which is unenforceable or partly unenforceable is, where possible, to be severed to the extent necessary to make the Order enforceable, unless this would materially change the intended effect of the Order.

The Buyer reserves the right to change the terms and conditions as set out in this document at any point in time.

32. NOTICES

Any notice required to be given under this contract shall, if the party is a Company, be signed by any person being or purporting to be a Director, Manager, or Senior officer of the party giving it, and if not a Company, then by the party himself and shall be deemed to have been given on the second day following posting if sent by prepaid mail in an envelope addressed to the registered office or principal place of business or last known address as the case may be of the party to whom the notice is being sent.

33. SET OFF

Any amount payable by the Seller to the Buyer or any amount to be borne by the Seller in connection with the Order may be set off by the Buyer against any amount owing by Buyer to the Seller, and the Buyer may recover any net amount as a debt due by the Buyer.

34. WORKPLACE HEALTH AND SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

The Seller must comply with all applicable environmental, workplace, health and safety laws and regulations, together with all applicable industry standards in Australia, support a precautionary approach in this respect, adopt initiatives to promote environmental responsibility, and encourage environmentally friendly technologies.

The Seller must be committed to the improvement of the health and safety of its employees and operations and take all reasonable and necessary actions to prevent accidents and injuries, analyse and minimise health and safety risk exposures.

35. SUPPLIER'S TERMS OF SALE DO NOT APPLY

Any right that the Buyer may have under the Order is in addition to, and does not replace or limit, any other right that the Buyer may have.

Any provision of the Order which is unenforceable or partly unenforceable is, where possible, to be severed to the extent necessary to make the Order enforceable, unless this would materially change the intended effect of the Order.

The Order contains the entire agreement between the parties about the supply of the Goods and/or Services. Any previous understanding, agreement, representation or warranty relating to that subject matter is replaced by the Order and has no further effect.

No terms and conditions of sale of the Seller form part of the terms and conditions on which any Goods and/or Services are purchased. No terms stated by the Seller when accepting or acknowledging an Order are binding upon Buyer unless accepted with consent in writing by a Director, Manager or Senior Officer of the Buyer.

36. TOOLING, FITTINGS, JIGS & RELATED PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

All tooling, fittings, jigs and related plant and equipment owned, purchased or acquired at the expense of the Buyer and supplied to the Seller for use in production of Goods ("Tooling") are and will remain the property of the Buyer.

The Seller will not use the Tooling for any purpose other than for the supply of Goods under the terms and conditions and the Seller will not sell agree to sell lease, mortgage, pledge, assign, convey or parlay with possession, allow any mortgage, charge or lien to exist, alter, scrap or otherwise dispose or deal with the Tooling, without first obtaining the Buyer's express written consent.

The Seller will ensure that the Tooling is only operated and maintained by properly trained personnel and that it is operated with all safeguards and warnings in place at all times. The Seller will operate tooling at its own risk, without liability to the Buyer.

The Buyer reserves the right, upon notice, to enter the Seller's premises to inspect the Tooling, which, unless otherwise agreed, is to be kept by the Seller in good order and repair, and to take possession of, or remove, any of the tooling on demand, at any time. On receipt of a request for the return of the tooling, the Seller will prepare it for shipment and have it delivered to the Buyer at the Buyer's expense, in the same condition as originally received by the Seller, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

If, during retention of the Tooling, it is identified that an abnormal refurbishment is required, agreement with the Buyer must precede any commitment of expense.

The Seller will safeguard and insure all Tooling on its premises against loss, damage and fire, and against any other hazards for which the Seller would normally insure its own tooling. The Seller must replace the Tooling, in value or in kind, if it is lost, damaged or destroyed on its premises. The Certificate of Currency in respect of any insurance shall be produced to the Buyer upon demand.

37. SURPLUS AND SCRAP
